

Funds from the budget of the statutory city of Pilsen are provided for the implementation of the project "Design and optimization of production of parts usable in mechanical tests of aircraft components under 3D printing" within the program of cooperation between companies and research organizations in the Pilsen agglomeration "Pilsen Business Vouchers."

